1000 Enterprises and 1000 Philanthropists for Children-in-Need programmes are dedicated giving initiatives launched by Singapore Children's Society in 2009 and 2014 respectively. The funds raised through these programmes enable us to pursue preventive and developmental work for children, youth and families, empowering them to be resilient and realise their full potential.

For more information about our 1000 Enterprises and 1000 Philanthropists for Children-in-Need programmes, please write to us at engage@childrensociety.org.sg

#Singapore Children's Society is an Institution of a Public Character (IPC) and all local donations qualify for 2.5 times tax deduction unless otherwise mentioned. Please fill in your particulars and NRIC/FIN/UEN number so that your donation will automatically be included in your tax assessment by IRAS. Donations and corresponding details need to reach Singapore Children's Society before end of the year in order to qualify for tax assessment in the current year. For existing donors who are contributing on a monthly basis, this submission will be treated as additional contributions.

The Society will no longer issue physical receipts as part of its ESG efforts with effect from November 2023. If you wish to receive an e-receipt, please provide your email address. Hardcopy receipts are only available by request via email to donations@childrensociety.org.sg.
